Dear Susanne Eggert,

I am seeking an opportunity to learn, contribute and succeed in the dynamic sport industry.

Having earned my Bachelor of Science in Business, Language, & Culture, from the Copenhagen Business School, I understand the power of culture in a business-context and am determined to work for a driven company that challenges and embraces culture to achieve success. Media Operations and Event Management are my particular areas of interest. I am eager to learn and work for a multifaceted company that is renowned for its one of a kind Triathlon hosting and whose vision is rooted in the belief that anything is possible. I want to be part of your company, and seek to optimise and help run future events. My own experiences as an athlete across multiple countries have only reinforced the desire to combine my passion for sport with my career. By the end of this year, I will be a Junior FullStack Developer, and know that I want to expand my organisation and tech skills in the realm of sport eventing.

Curiosity, spirit, and goal-oriented are characteristics, which will enable me to contribute quickly and proactively in a new business environment demanding open-mindedness, tenacity, and teamwork.

Through my international background, I have developed strong communication skills, positive attitude to teamwork, and dexterity to adapt to change. A strong commitment to excel, coupled with self-discipline is a mindset I bring to the table.

The enclosed resume details my experience and qualifications. Please contact me if an appropriate opportunity exists or arises for me at the Ironman Group. Thank you for your time and consideration. I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
